ABOUT WALES TO WHEREVER

Wales to Wherever isn't a luxury travel blog; it isn't a budget travel blog; it isn't a solo travel blog and it isn't destination specific. It's a bit of everything. From the lush green tea plantations of India to the rugged terrain of Montenegro, from all 7 New Wonders of the World to an array of lesser known but equally as magnificent landmarks worldwide, Wales to Wherever will take you on a unique voyage around the world. Using a combination of humorous personal stories, listicles, travel advice and photo essays to illustrate the way, Wales to Wherever will leave you wanting adventure, excitement and a one-way ticket around the world!

RHIANNON THATCHER

The voice behind the words, Rhiannon was born and raised in Wales, UK (and is most definitely not related to Margaret), and there's not a place on this Earth she doesn't want to visit. Except maybe Merthyr.

A translator by profession and wanderer by heart, you won't find her in one place for long.
