

Wales to Wherever

Media Kit | Feb 2018

RHIANNON THATCHER

The voice behind the words, Rhiannon was born and raised in Wales, UK (and is most definitely not related to Margaret), and there's not a place on this Earth she doesn't want to visit. Except maybe Merthyr.

A translator by profession and wanderer by heart, you won't find her in one place for long.

ABOUT WALES TO WHEREVER

Wales to Wherever isn't a luxury travel blog; it isn't a budget travel blog; it isn't a solo travel blog and it isn't destination specific. It's a bit of everything. From the lush green tea plantations of India to the rugged terrain of Montenegro, from all 7 New Wonders of the World to an array of lesser known but equally as magnificent landmarks worldwide, Wales to Wherever will take you on a unique voyage around the world. Using a combination of humorous personal stories, listicles, travel advice and photo essays to illustrate the way, Wales to Wherever will leave you wanting adventure, excitement and a one-way ticket around the world!
